Recap of the Year: 2025

A Year of Purpose, Progress, and Impact:

The year 2025 was a landmark chapter in the journey of Noor ul Huda Education—a year defined by transformative growth, visionary initiatives, and unwavering commitment to empowering individuals and communities.

We witnessed a 60% increase in institutional capacity and outreach, enabling us to deepen our impact across multiple dimensions of education and social development. This growth wasn't just quantitative—it was qualitative, rooted in values, equity, and sustainable change.

Beyond programs, our active presence—from local SDG dialogues to global education forums—helped forge powerful partnerships and advance our vision of a just, educated, and conscious society.

As we reflect on 2025, we're filled with gratitude—for our team, partners, learners, and communities who made this year not just successful, but sacred in service.

The Journey Continues.
With Purpose. With Faith. With Sincerity.

EDVGA Launch: Seven Solutions for the Global Education Challenges

In the blessed month of Ramadan in March, Noor ul Huda Education launched an International Chapter of EDVGA from Madinah, for visionary framework addressing the most pressing issues in global education—from teacher shortages to AI ethics. The seven actionable solutions emphasized equity, mental well-being, curriculum modernization, and inclusive technology integration. Designed for educators, policymakers, and parents, this initiative sparked meaningful dialogue on building resilient, future-focused learning ecosystems.

EDVGA Teachers Improvement Program

EDVGA energetically empowered educators in the months of January and August, through Teachers Improvement Program (TIP) Rafiah Mudassir, MD of Noor ul Huda Education & other seasoned educational trainers. Focused on continuous professional growth, these sessions reminded educators of their profound role in shaping future generations. Through reflection and practical strategies, teachers reconnected with their purpose and commitment to lifelong learning.

EDVGA Live Session

During March 2025, Rafiah Mudassir hosted a thought-provoking EDVGA Live Session on the ethics of AI in education. She explored critical themes like fairness, transparency, and responsible AI integration in classrooms. The session empowered educators to navigate the digital future with integrity, ensuring technology serves humanity—not the other way around.

EDVGA Contemporary Teaching Practices: Subject Specific Workshop

In the month of September, EDVGA had launched a dynamic project of Contemporary Teaching Practices. The first 2-hour online workshop focused on AI-powered Urdu language teaching. Led by an expert digital Urdu trainer, Saima Sultana Siddiqui explored practical AI tools to make Urdu lessons more engaging and effective. Participants received an e-certificate and a curated EDVGA resource booklet on Urdu digital tools—equipping them to become future-ready language educators.

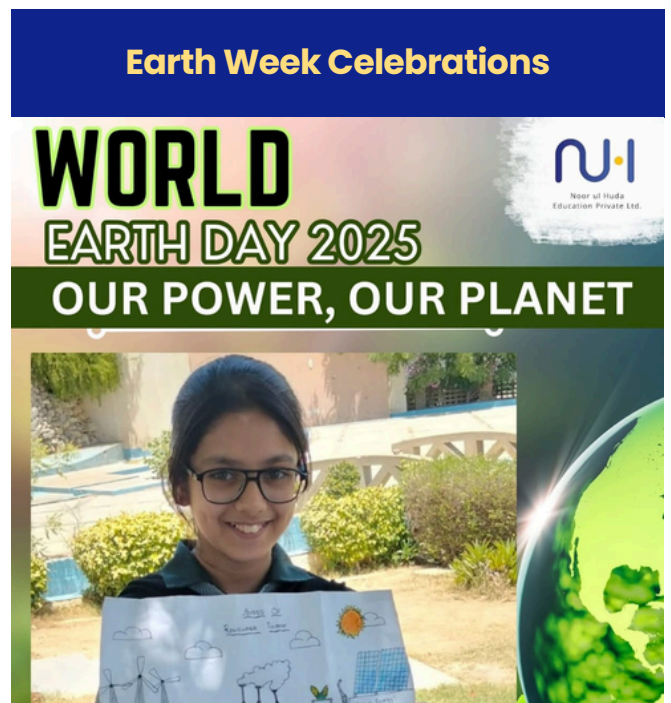

On October 4, 2025—World Teachers' Day—Noor ul Huda Education's EdVision Global Academy (EDVGA) proudly hosted the 5th International Educational Leadership Conference (IELC) at the Bahria Auditorium, Karsaz Road, Karachi, brought together over 250 educators and leaders from across the globe.

The conference featured visionary insights from international thought leaders like Dr. Michael Fullan, Dr. Andy Hargreaves, and Dr. Arthie Moore Robberts, who emphasized values-based leadership and teacher empowerment, while national experts including Rtn Ambreena Ahmed, Dr. Fatima Dar, Dr. Rabia Nauman, and Abbas Husain championed teacher agency and community-rooted education. The panel discussions also set the theme of the conference successfully.

The event culminated in a special recognition ceremony led by Chief Guest DG Shakeel Kaim Khani, honored the outstanding participants during Teachers' Contest. Supported by Rotary International District 3271, RCK Quaid, RCK Elite, and other academic and community partners, IELC 2025 reaffirmed our collective mission: to uplift teachers as the true architects of a just, educated, and conscious future.

NuH Falcons had celebrated Earth Week in April, with a range of activities, raising awareness about environmental conservation and sustainability. Our students took the lead in promoting eco-friendly practices and making a positive impact on the planet.

NuH Falcons as Learning Partner in IBA Debating Championship

Noor ul Huda Falcons proudly partnered with the Institute of Business Administration (IBA) Karachi as the Learning Partner for their prestigious Debating Championship held in July. The event brought together talented students from across Pakistan to showcase their critical thinking, public speaking, and argumentation skills.

Program Director Ms. Lubna Imran addressed the students, emphasizing the importance of developing leadership skills through debating.

She encouraged participants to focus on honing their critical thinking, research, and communication skills to become effective leaders. The IBA Debating Championship is a highly competitive platform where students engage in parliamentary-style debates, tackling pressing national and international issues. Noor ul Huda Falcons' involvement as a Learning Partner underscores their commitment to fostering academic excellence and promoting youth empowerment.

The championship featured participants from diverse backgrounds, with teams debating in both English and Urdu. The event aimed to nurture leadership, critical thinking, and public speaking among university students.

Voices of Tomorrow: Podcast with Youth Ambassadors

NuH Falcons are delighted to share that two talented students from renowned institutions, Mohammad Talha Hassan Hameedi & Syeda Vania Ali, were invited as the youth ambassadors for the podcasts, to discuss the topics close to their hearts. These inspiring conversations showcased their confidence, creativity, and passion for making a difference.

ALLAMA IQBAL DAY
9TH NOVEMBER

ALLAMA MUHAMMAD IQBAL
National poet of Pakistan
November 9, 1877

On November 9, Noor ul Huda Falcons honored to met virtually to Allama Iqbal—philosopher, poet, and visionary leader—whose words continue to awaken purpose in youth. His message of self-belief, knowledge, and resilience remains a guiding light for youth.

Ramadan Welfare Drive

In February 2025, Noor ul Huda Welfare launched its annual Ramadan Welfare Drive, distributing essential food supplies, ration packs, and Iftar meals to hundreds of underprivileged families. The initiative embodied compassion in action—ensuring dignity, nourishment, and spiritual connection during the holy month for those in need.

NuH Welfare Shines at Karachi Flower Show

On February 22, 2025, students of SRSC (Noor ul Huda's community learning space) lit up the 74th Annual Karachi Flower Show at A.K. Khan Park. Supported by Noor ul Huda Welfare and Laal Roti Foundation, their joyful presence highlighted the power of creative expression and community participation in public cultural spaces.

EID GIFTS FOR THE NEEDY CHILDREN

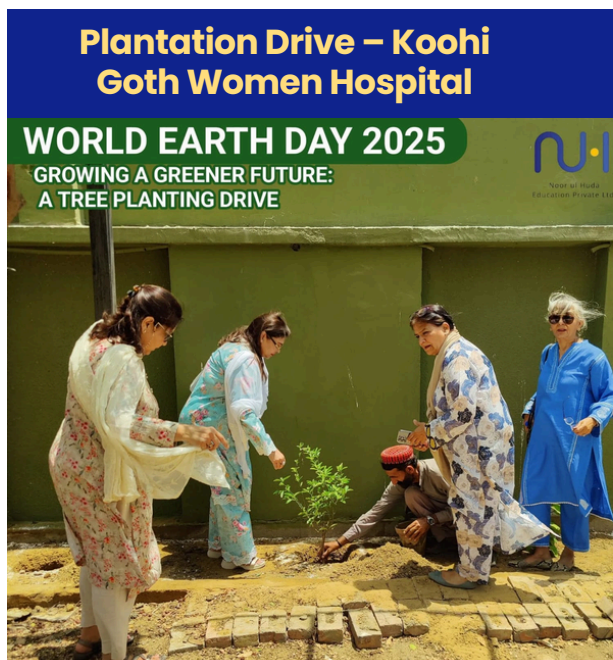

On March 26, 2025, Noor ul Huda Welfare brought smiles to vulnerable children across Karachi by distributing Eid gifts—a heartfelt effort to ensure every child experiences the joy and warmth of Eid. The gesture reinforced our belief that celebration should never be a privilege, but a shared human right.

NuH Welfare Internship Programme

On July 7, 2025, a special storytelling and art session—led by a GoRead.pk intern under Noor ul Huda Welfare's internship program—captivated SRSC children. Through imaginative tales and hands-on creativity, the session nurtured a lifelong love for reading, self-expression, and joyful learning.

On July 10, 2025, Noor ul Huda Welfare expanded its Green Pakistan Initiative with a Tree Plantation Drive at Koohi Goth Women Hospital. This act of environmental stewardship not only beautified a critical healthcare space but also honored the link between nature, healing, and community well-being.

From July 14 to 21, 2025, a great initiative was taken by Noor ul Huda Welfare, in collaboration with Batool Homes and supported by the Rotary Club of Karachi Silver Sands, which hosted a vibrant summer camp designed to nurture self-leadership, creativity, and life skills among youth.

The week-long program featured dynamic workshops—from storytelling and art to baking, crochet, and a powerful session on Khudi (selfhood)—led by expert facilitators including Rafiah Mudassir, Sarwat Shah, Amina Saeed, Shabnam Akbar, and Mona Adil. By blending experiential learning with emotional and ethical growth, the camp empowered participants to flourish with confidence, compassion, and a sense of purpose.

Community Welfare & Daily Outreach

Throughout 2025, Noor ul Huda Welfare sustained a steady rhythm of compassionate action—from regular meal and biryani distributions, clothing drives, and Qurbani meat sharing, to birthday celebrations and festive treats for SRSC children. These consistent efforts, often made possible by generous donors like the Mehar family, reflect our core belief: care is best shown through consistent, everyday kindness.

Conscious Parenting

In the progressive month of March, Ms. Lubna Imran, an educational researcher & parent counselling expert, led an insightful session on “Being A Conscious Mother” guided parents from conventional to gentle, mindful approaches. The session explored four key parenting styles and provided practical tools to strike a balance between warmth, boundaries, and emotional connection. Attendees embraced a transformative shift toward compassionate, conscious parenting rooted in awareness and love.

Mothers & Child Physical and Emotional Well-Being Workshop

Held on August 1, 2025, at SRSC, this transformative workshop focused on holistic wellness for mothers and children—addressing nutrition, emotional resilience, and nurturing care. Aligned with our Conscious Parenting vision, it empowered caregivers with practical tools for mindful, healthy family living.

Upcoming Projects of Noor ul Huda Education: Empowering Communities through Education

Noor ul Huda Education is committed to empowering individuals and communities through education and leadership development. As we move forward, we are excited to announce a range of upcoming projects that cater to educators, educational leaders, students, youth, parents, and the community at large.

For educators, we will be launching a globally recognised Values-Based Leadership Course designed to equip leaders with the skills and principles necessary to make a positive impact in their communities. This program will focus on developing transformative leaders who can inspire and motivate others to achieve excellence. Additionally, we will organize a Winter Training Camp for Educators, providing professional development opportunities to enhance teaching skills and stay updated on best practices.

For students and youth, we will be hosting a Youth Leadership Camp, a platform for young leaders to share ideas and develop their leadership skills. This conference will provide opportunities for networking, skill-building, and personal growth.

Our commitment to community welfare is reflected in our ongoing initiatives, including food distribution, ration kits, and medicine supply to those in need.

We believe that education and community service go hand-in-hand, and we are dedicated to making a positive impact.

At Noor ul Huda Education, we strive to create a ripple effect of positive change in the community. Through our projects and initiatives, we aim to empower individuals, strengthen families, and build resilient communities. We invite you to join us in our mission to make a difference.

Our upcoming projects and initiatives are designed to be inclusive and accessible to all. We believe that education is a fundamental right, and we are committed to providing opportunities for everyone to be empowered.

Join us in our mission to empower communities through education. Together, we can create a brighter future for all.
